OUR COLLEGE.

The Kentucky Normal College is Prosperous and Growing.

Louisa is a college town. Have you realized that important fact and given it due weight? Why, they have been coming on every train. Just stand on the street corner about 6 p. m., and look at the bright, intelligent faces of the hundreds—yes, hundreds of students from our college. These young representatives of the sturdy, honest people of the mountains have learned that they can not be robbed of an education, and that to obtain this priceless thing they will do best in the Kentucky Normal College. Acting upon this knowledge they have already come, are coming, and will continue to come. Up both rivers, up both railroads, out where there is neither river nor rail—all over Eastern Kentucky, in fact, it has become known, in spite of malicious reports to the contrary, that our school is a very pronounced success; that all students, no matter how many, those who come, are being educated and will be, welcomed and cared for in the best possible manner.

The students from abroad have been questioned regarding their reception and treatment here and there is but one answer: We were never treated better. The NEWS learns that some one has started a rumor that the price of boarding has been raised. This is just the opposite of the truth. It has been lowered. And right here the editor of the NEWS desires to say the people of Louisa, regardless of pecuniary worth, have better eating and more of than have the people of any other place with which he is acquainted. And their hospitality is proverbial.

The poorest of us, if we could afford it, would be glad to take into our homes these fine looking, sturdy young men, and these handsome bright looking young women and keep them just for hospitality's sake. We have not brought the Kentucky Normal College to Louisa as a financial speculation, but we want it for the best good it must accomplish for our children and the youth of the mountains. The outlook for the attainment of this desirable object is very bright. At the beginning the outlook was not very rosy. There were many natural obstacles to be cleared away, and malice and envy began their dirty work. In spite of all the school came, opened, flourished and grew until now it does seem as if nothing could injure us. We now close that last sentence. Of course, we, the people, the citizens of Louisa, are component parts of the Kentucky Normal College. We grow, in a sense, with its growth, and if it should fall ours would be the loss. But "In the bright lexicon" of the Kentucky Normal College "there is no such word as fall." It is here, and here to stay.

A Successful Salesman.

H. J. Chaffin has signed a contract with Hagen, Ratcliff and Co. of Huntington, for another year's services as traveling salesman. Mr. Chaffin, received a check for an extra $150.00 from them at the close of the old year, in recognition of his valuable services. He is one of the most popular and successful salesmen the past year out far beyond the requirements of his contract. His men on the road. His sales during many friends here are pleased to hear of his success.

"Happyland"

A very gay party of Louisians went to Huntington Tuesday afternoon, returning on the midnight N. and W. The object of the trip, primarily, was to see and hear De Wolf Hopper, in the musical play of "Happy Land." The following ladies and gentlemen composed the party: Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Vinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Burchett, Jr., Misses Melle and Lizzie Bromley, Emily Carey, Kate Freese, Heloise Thomas, Lella Snyder, Misses Lute Yates, Willie Frazier, Messrs. Thos. L. Muncester, R. D. Jackson, H. G. Wellman, C. T. Rule, G. R. Burgess, Dr. M. G. Watson.

H. A. Scholze has returned to Ford, Ky. where he is in charge of the S. Improvement on the Kentucky river at that point.

The Pure Food Law.

The National Pure Food Law, which went into effect last Tuesday, affects classes of merchants, the wholesale grocers, druggists and, as well in a lesser extent the retail dealers in the various commodities which have a food or medicinal value.

The classes of merchants who come under the provisions of the law have been preparing for the past two months to comply with the regulations. The relabeling of goods does not become immediately necessary, as under the statute the retailer may keep on hand until October 1, 1907, all goods at present in stock, and dispose of them, but after that time, he desires to sell those goods, he must have all relabeled.

The wholesale druggists must see that all goods received from outside of the State after to-day are properly labeled, before disposing of them to their customers. If any preparation is designated as a cure for any ailment, and is proved to be not an absolute cure, it may be called a tonic or remedy, but not a cure.

Also, all patent medicines must be labeled with the percentage of alcohol or narcotics which they contain. Those prepared within the borders of the State may be sold within the State without this label.

The goods that are on hand at the wholesale druggists now need not be relabeled for interstate shipments, but if they desire to sell them outside of Kentucky, they must be properly stamped. Many remedies that claim to apply to a dozen ailments must change the nature of their label, and state only as to what diseases they are specific.

The grocers must also have relabeled all goods received in interstate shipments after Jan. 1, with the proper designation of their contents. For instance, some brands of lard, sold to be "leaf" lard, and the distinctive trade mark must be changed. The potted or deviled chicken which is not chicken at all, but beef tongue (trimmings and scraps), is also decorated with the 23 mark. Then the combination lard, which is cotton-seed oil, may not be called "lard."

Apple butter, which has been sold for years as such in many cases, is not apple butter. Recent shipments received by a Louisville house were labeled "Imitation Apple Butter."

Landslide On N. & W.

Heavy rains along the N. and W. Big Sandy division, were responsible for a landslide, which settled a rock weighing several tons across the main line, near Warfield, early Sunday morning. Owing to this obstruction a heavy west-bound freight train, drawn by engine No. 715, ploughed in the fog, with sufficient force to ruin the engine, while four of the loaded gondolas piled upon each other in a heap. Engineer John R. Fitzer has his ankle and knee badly bruised from jumping, but otherwise escaped unhurt. The rails were badly torn up, and it required hours for the wrecking crew to put the track once more in to shape.

Three Sided.

The Triangle Club, Miss Lillian McHenry, hostess, was delightfully entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. M. S. Burns. Miss McHenry's sister, formally was thrown to the winds on this very pleasant occasion, and each guest, by value and manner, declared it a very good time to have been asked to such a happy occasion. Cards invited to their innocent diversion, and then came the inevitable. If you know Louisa you can fill this blank and you must fill it complete with all that makes a most inviting luncheon. The function is suggestive of much, but the NEWS to-day can only add the names of those who were present:

Miss Yates, Mr. Muncester, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Abbott, Mrs. J. Carey, Miss Butler, Miss O'Brien, Miss Carey, Mr. Burgess, Miss McClure, Miss Lella Snyder, Miss Hattie Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Vinson, Mrs. Cook, Mr. Moore, and Miss Mary Harkins, of Prestonsburg.

Election of Officers.

On Thursday, Dec. 27, Apperson Lodge, F. and A. M., held its annual election of officers with the following result: T. J. Snyder, W. M.; A. J. Conley, S. W.; C. C. Hill, J. W.; J. W. Jones, Sec.; Augustus Snyder, Treas.; N. D. Wildeck, S. D.; A. M. Hootes, J. D.; Thomas Brannan, T. The Trustees of the building are Augustus Snyder, E. E. Shannon and Thomas Brannan.

TELEPHONE RATES

Are Higher Than We Were Led to Believe They Would Be.

The Southern Bell Telephone Company has announced its rates from Louisa to long distance points most desired by local patrons.

They are as follows: Huntington, 25c; Catlettsburg, 35c; Ashland, 40c; Paintsville, 25c; Prestonsburg, 35c.

These rates are from 50 to 100 per cent higher than those named by the officials of the company before they secured the concessions.

The editor of the NEWS asked Mr. Williamson, the Superintendent in charge of this district, what the rates would be from Louisa to these points and he said six-tenths of a cent per mile. We asked him whether the mileage to Catlettsburg and Ashland would be computed by way of Huntington and he said not; but that the railroad mileage would be the basis. This would make the rate to Catlettsburg fifteen cents and to Ashland eighteen cents. Mr. Williamson added that a point that figured out seventeen or eighteen cents would probably be fixed at twenty cents, and other amounts would be made even in that way.

This statement was made to us, however, when the company was trying to get into Louisa. Before and after makes a considerable difference, just as we predicted. It would on any point not covered by an absolute contract. Yet, they raise the cry that any one who refuses to surrender to their every request without a protest is against them for some selfish or unaccountable reason.

"The people make a mistake in giving these strong corporations the opportunity to take advantage of them in any way."

Mrs. F. L. Stewart Entertained.

One of the most elegant receptions of the season was given last Thursday afternoon by Mrs. F. L. Stewart at her beautiful Main street home. Her delighted guests were her sister members of the Filch Club, some residents of Louisa, and Misses Bertha Watson, of Ashland, Miss Nell Sweetnam, of Catlettsburg, and Miss Lucy Holderby, of Huntington. When this famous club, the Filchers, meets it is primarily and essentially for games. They had 'em. Beautiful parlor and cozy reception room were full of tables, and later on, in point of fullness the guests resembled the rooms!

The NEWS is "right there" in the matter of the good things of this life, but it is weak when it comes to telling about cups made of oranges, and bowls of bananas, and it must pass this part of the Stewart affair; but they do say that nothing nicer was ever seen hereabouts. The merriment adjourned at a late hour, satisfied and happy.

How Did You Earn That $?

The "experience meeting" mentioned in the NEWS a couple of weeks ago occurred at the South Methodist parsonage last Friday evening. The ladies of the church had promised that each would earn a dollar for the church, and tell what she did to make the one hundred cents. They and their friends met in goodly numbers, and the experiences told were instructive, interesting and amusing. The $ earned and the sale of refreshments netted the church, through these worthy women, very nearly four score of the 4-quarter colous.

A Ripe Old Age.

Mr. James K. Chapin writes us from Paris, Ill., that he recently visited Nelson McClure at Annapolis, Md. county, Ind. The latter is in his 94th year. He is an uncle of George and Harvey McClure, of Gallop, this county, and of Mrs. Nancy Hillips, of this place, and Prof. T. B. McClure, of Wayne. He left Big Sandy more than half a century ago.

During the holiday season Miss Emily Carey entertained several of her young friends one evening very pleasantly indeed. The affair was informal; but none the less enjoyable.

Mr. and Mrs. Lock Moore spent Christmas with the family of James Prince, of Ind. They have moved into the Charles Wellman house, on Lock avenue, property recently purchased by Mr. Moore.

The Rice Reunion.

The memory of the distinguished Judge John M. Rice and his noble wife was beautifully brightened last Sunday by a gathering of their descendants at the hospitable home of his youngest daughter, Mrs. B. F. Thomas. The children present, besides Mrs. Thomas, were John M. Rice, Mrs. James McConnell and Mrs. James Lackey. The children-in-law to coin an expression, were Mrs. John M. Rice, Mrs. Joe Rice, Mr. B. F. Thomas, Mr. James McConnell and Mr. J. Q. Lackey. The grandchildren were Miss Heloise Thomas, Mrs. Frances McConnell Crowell, James Rice and Junior Lackey. The dead son, Will, and the grandson, Alex, in far off California, were present in the tender thoughts and loving words of their living kin.

When an assemblage of this or almost any other sort gathers at Ben Thomas' life's creature comforts are not forgotten. But this meeting was out of the ordinary, and the hosts rose to the occasion. In large profusion the choicest edibles of this goodly land of ours were served to the goodly company, and there was no detail of cuisine, service or table that was not perfect. With music and reminiscences the day passed delightfully, all sorry that it should close so soon.

The next reunion will be held at James Q. Lackey's. May there be no vacant chair!

Consumers Will Know.

Or after Tuesday—providing the national pure food law is complied with by all druggists—mothers will know exactly how much opium they are giving their infants in each dose of soothing syrup; the society dame with "just the best in the world when you are tired," tonic will know the proportion of cocaine or chloroform in each spoonful; and the devotees of one, or several, brands of "bitters" who is eloquent in denouncing "rum" and the "rum traffic" will learn, with more or less surprise, exactly how much alcohol there is in a quart bottle. The law provides specifically that the percentage of all these things, and of all these things, and of other narcotics and poisons, be printed plainly on a label on every bottle of "patent" or other medicine shipped from one to another state.

Oh My!

While considerable criticism is given women's clubs and the amount of time wasted upon them, yet there is one advantage they offer which cannot be denied: when it comes the turn of a member to entertain the club, dirt and cobwebs are cleaned out that had not been disturbed for months.

A New Landlord.

S. Isom has sold out to G. W. Hamilton, formerly of Olive Hill. Mr. Isom has not decided upon a location for the future and is still here. He is a very worthy man and good citizen. Mr. Hamilton has been engaged in the hotel business heretofore.

Ring in, Ring Out.

This entreaty, exhortation, injunction or command, which ever you may call it, was obeyed in Louisa last Monday night; and from the racket made it is likely that all four of these forms were employed in having the ringing done. In a flood of silvery radiance from a full-robed moon 1906 joined the 1905 years gone forever, and 1907, with its joys of pain and pleasure, joys and griefs, was ushered in. May our days be full of happiness, far outnumbering those of pain and sorrow.

Mrs. Edw. O'Roark, daughter of Hon. John York, of Kenova, died at her home in Grayson, Ky., last Friday.

Mrs. O'Roark was sick only one week, her ailment being pronounced by her physician to be peritonitis. The body was brought to Kenova Saturday where it was reshipped to Yorkville, Wayne county, for burial. The deceased was a very estimable woman and had scores of warm friends in this city, whose sympathies go out to the three small children who are now motherless, and to the bereaved husband.

Mr. O'Roark is a native of this county and well known in Louisa, where he has many relatives and friends.

PERT PARAGRAPHS

Picked Up At Pike, Paint and Prestonsburg.

R. E. Stanley, of Prestonsburg, is the victim of a sick horse thief who Saturday last succeeded in selling him an animal he had stolen from a Mrs. Jacobs, of Knott county.

John A. Bentley, of Pikeville, has sold to the General Lumber Co., a large tract of timber. The consideration, it is understood, is in the neighborhood of $10,000.

Washington, Dec. 27.—Major Jas. F. Stewart is dead here. He had a distinguished military career in the Civil War, and after the war he practiced law in Paintsville, Ky., for twenty years.

Three prisoners—Flemming, Francis and Hurley—who were in the Pike county jail in default of bail, by some mishap on the part of the jailer, escaped Sunday night and fled to parts unknown.

Darby died at his home, near the Mouth of Heaven, Tuesday, from consumption. Mr. Darby had been in poor health for several months, yet not seriously so, thought his family, and friends, and his death was a great shock to them. He leaves a wife and five children.

Pikeville, Ky., Dec. 28. Col. Jack Hendricks, the once loyal Kentuckian, as our people thought, but now a New Yorker, is in our midst, filling old Virginia land grants for taxation, claiming them to the exclusion of our people, who have actually expended enough labor upon their homes at a fair per diem to buy Jack, his syndicates if they were as "in avoidance" as South African diamonds. Some of our citizens from the sections that are being claimed by this syndicate were in the city yesterday, and sent an invitation to those gentlemen to come up and put even a foot upon their birth-spot, assuring them that they would have to expend less energy in taking their leave than in coming.

Pitts, Hankins and Trundle, vs. Daniel Centers.—Filed December 12, 1906. (Not to be reported.) Appeal from Floyd Circuit Court. Opinion of the court by Carroll, Commissioner, reversing.

Master and Servant—Injury of Servant—Negligence of Fellow servant.—Shower who was directed by the foreman, in connection with other laborers, to remove a large rock from a public road where it had been thrown by a blast, cannot recover from the contractor in control of the work for an injury received in removing said rock by the slipping of a crowbar, where the accident was due entirely to the acts, whether negligent or not, of his fellow-laborers. Walter S. Harkins for appellant; James Gaebe, May and May for appellee.

One killed and another fatally wounded formed a Christmas tragedy on Boone's Fork eight miles above Seigent, Will Edsawick, aged twenty-one, and Clark Vanover, aged twenty-four, were the participants.

Edsawick struck Vanover three times across the forehead with a shotgun, knocking him to the ground. Regarding his feet, Vanover fired two shots from a forty-five caliber Colt's revolver, one of which entered Edsawick's right side, ranging up past the heart, killing him instantly. Flourishing his revolver in midair, Vanover walked into the hotel of William Warlick, near where the tragedy occurred, and with an oath, declared "there is more blood in my gun," and attempted to take the life of Warlick. Vanover then swooned from loss of blood, and at this hour is still unconscious. He has three desperate wounds on the forehead, and the doctors say he will die, though Ben Foster, a police officer guarding him, reported the wounded man somewhat improved.

It is no old saying that trouble never comes singly, and this is clearly exemplified in the case of Irvin Ford, of Prestonsburg, Ky. Mr. Ford brought his wife there Monday to have an operation performed upon her at the Deaconess Hospital for gill stones, and yesterday received a telegram stating that their home had been burned to the ground and that all they had in it was totally destroyed. While Dr. Kelle, would probably rather not have anything said about it, his philanthropy and charity in a recent case has been mentioned, for as an act of kindness he has rarely been equaled. Dr. Kelle recently performed an operation on a woman for the removal of gall stones. The fee for a consultation had been paid in advance, and when Dr. Kelle learned that the woman and her husband had the misfortune to lose their home and its contents on the same day the operation was performed, he returned the fee to the patient and would accept not one penny for his work. Dr. Kelle has been known to do these things before, but he was always successful in keeping them from the public. Irvin Ford is from Ironton.

Well Known Woman Dead.

The aged widow of the late Stephen Marcum, formerly of Fort Gay, died last Monday at the advanced age of 96 years. After the death of her husband Mrs. Marcum resided in Fort Gay until a daughter, Mrs. John Dotson moved to Devon, on the N. and W. railway, and here she died on the day mentioned. The body was brought to Fort Gay and was buried near that place on Wednesday, with funeral services conducted by the Rev. Burrell Akers, of the Baptist church. This was in compliance with her expressed desire. She was buried by the side of her husband, who has been dead about 13 years.

Mrs. Marcum was a very strong character. She was intelligent and took of much interest in the happenings of the country. She was deeply attached to her large family, six boys and four girls, all of whom grew to manhood and womanhood under her motherly care. These are the children:

Mrs. John Dotson, Mrs. Robert Simpson, of War Eagle, W. Va., Mrs. P. J. Cahill, of New York city, Mrs. Baker, wife of Dr. M. Baker, Central City, Capt. T. D. Marcum and Capt. P. S. Marcum, of Catlettsburg, J. H. Love and J. S. Marcum, of Huntington, and W. W. Marcum, of Ceredo.

Many friends and relatives from Catlettsburg, Huntington and other cities attended the funeral.

Bridge Dividend.

The Louisa and Fort Gay Bridge Company directors decided to pay a dividend of four per cent from the business of the past six months. The remainder of the earnings are held for a sinking fund and other purposes. The bridge is making decidedly satisfactory showing, the receipts going beyond the expectations of those who promoted the enterprise.

"Yellow Goose."

This organization in large numbers and with many guests assembled first in the reception room and then in the refectory of the Brunswick last Thursday night. The session was purely a social one, the members being out for enjoyment, and that they had it, in large chunks, is sure. They had a good time in the parlor, and then the delights of the table began. The festive board was weighted with all manner of good things. It wasn't a mere luncheon, it was an elegant supper, in all the name implied. To give the full menu would make the mouth of the Big Sandy water.

The guests and club members present were: Misses Melle and Lizzie Bromley, Lute Yates, Beale Snyder, Kate Freese, Lella Snyder, Emily Carey, Jane O'Brien, Bertha Watson, Gene McClure, Lillian McHenry, Messrs. T. L. Muncester, Charles Cain, Herman Fulkerson, Dr. Meek, Capt. W. O. Johnson, U. S. A. J. W. Hall, H. G. Wellman, W. O. Tracy, Jack Richmond, C. T. Rule, George R. Burgess.

Degrees and Banquet.

Apperson Chapter, R. A., met in regular convocation, last Saturday night. Companions J. W. Klug, of Ashland, and Harry Kilgore, of Catlettsburg, were present and assisted in the work of conferring the beautiful degrees. At a late hour the Chapter closed in due form and repaired to the Brunswick Hotel for refreshment. This was served most abundantly and richly, all the substantial and delicacies being served to the hungry pariahs of the feast.

Services at M. E. Church South.

Regular services as follows: (We use central standard time.) Prayer Meeting, each Wednesday at 6:30 p. m. Sabbath School, each Sabbath at 9 a. m. Preaching each Sabbath at 10:30 a. m. and at 6:30 p. m. You are cordially invited to attend all these services. Strangers in the town specially invited to worship with us. "Come thou with us and we will do thee good, for the Lord has spoken good concerning Israel." O. F. Williams, Pastor.

Miss Jessie Hughes, and Bert Perdue, of Wayne, W. Va., obtained a marriage license Sunday afternoon from Deputy County Clerk, Maline McClure, and the ceremony was performed at the Boyd County Clerk's office by Rev. J. W. Critch, pastor of M. E. church, South.

M. B. Sparks, the big cattle dealer of Louisa, Lawrence county, was here during the past week, and drove out a large number of fine cattle.—Letcher co. item.

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM MANY STATES

Important News Gathered from Abroad for the Benefit of Our Readers.

Lee county voted against open schools in a local option election held under the County Unit law. The school men made no fight, but will contest the election, alleging irregularities.

Kentucky's mineral products last year were valued at $14,871,811, according to a summary issued by the United States Geological Survey.

President Cassatt, of the Pennsylvania railroad, was stricken with a sudden heart attack Friday and expired before the arrival of a physician.

A bulletin issued to-day by the Department of Agriculture shows that Kentucky led all other States in the production of yellow poplar lumber in 1906, and that Indiana led in the production of hickory and walnut lumber.

Kentucky, in 1906, produced 122,500 feet of yellow poplar lumber from 309 mills. This was 21 per cent. of all the yellow poplar lumber in the United States.

Unknown men fired volley after volley of rifle balls into the home of Abram Mullins, in Breathitt county, seriously wounding Mullins and his son. The general store of Elbert Hargis was broken open earlier and all the cartridges it contained were taken.

Suit was filed at Frankfort for $25,000 damages for the death of a convict in the penitentiary who was killed inside the walls by a live wire. E. T. Lillard, former warden, is the administrator.

Gov. Beckham offered a reward of $500 for the arrest of Tom Wilson, the painter who ran amuck in Bowling Green, wounding six persons. The victims of the crazed man are slowly improving, and it is believed none will die.

Sturgis, Ky., Dec. 26.—The excitement due to the riot here Monday night between mine guards and non-union miners of the one side and the striking miners on the other, as the result of which three men were killed and a number injured, has subsided. It is not thought there will be any more trouble, as the officers claim they have the situation well in hand.

Fourteen union men who were guarding Quinn Moore, a wounded mine guard, to prevent any aid from being given him in order to allay his suffering, have dispersed.

The fight took place outside the pool and billiard room operated by a man named Holman.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 28.—At nine o'clock on Christmas day, Thomas Beasley, a well-known negro of this city, and a former slave of the Clay family, became 100 years old. He was born in Bourbon county at nine a. m. December 29, 1806, and was a slave of Gen. Cassius M. Clay, of Madison county, the famous abolition leader and United States Minister to Russia, and Brutus J. Clay, of Bourbon county, at one time a Congressman from the Ashland district.

Beasley's mother nursed Gen. Cassius Clay when he was a baby, and Gen. Clay held his old black "mammy" in such high esteem that when she died he paid $300 for the casket in which she was buried. Much of Beasley's boyhood was spent in the service of Gen. Cassius Clay, but for twenty-five years, up to 1896, he worked for John N. Wilson, of this county. For ten years he has been dependent upon Col. George W. Bain and Mrs. C. W. Townsend for support.

Miss Laura Clay, of this city, the widely known advocate of women's suffrage and a daughter of Gen. Cassius M. Clay, was in her possession the old family Bible containing a record of her ancestor's birth. On Christmas day she presented him with a home at Berea, Ky., where he will spend his remaining days. His memory is unimpaired and he talks entertainingly of Henry Clay, Richard M. Meade, Thomas Marshall and other distinguished Kentuckians whom he has seen and heard. He has always used tobacco and "a little dram" has always been welcome to him.

DEATH FROM LOCKJAW.

never follows an injury dressed with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Its antiseptic and healing properties prevent blood poisoning. Chas. Oswald merchant, of Rensselaersville, N. Y., writes: "It cured Seth Brown, of this place, of the ugliest sore on his neck I ever saw." Cures Cuts, Wounds, Burns and Sores. 25c a box.

MEN PAST SIXTY IN DANGER

More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate gland. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, of Rock Port, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure, I feel better than I have for twenty years although I am now 81 years old." Sold by Louisa Drug Co.

Expert Machinist-Plumber.

An imperfect job done in repairing machinery is the most expensive thing imaginable. Absolute accuracy is necessary. Broken parts of an engine must be perfectly repaired, or replaced by accurate new parts. Otherwise, it is just as well to throw the engine into the scrap pile and save cost of repairs. Frank E. Kilbourne, Ashland, Ky., is an engine specialist. He is prepared to duplicate or repair perfectly any part. He is also an expert plumber. Perfect plumbing is the only kind that never causes trouble. Save money and further trouble by employing him.

OUR WEST VIRGINIA NEIGHBORS.

As Xmas is approaching the wedding bells are beginning to tinkle around our town.

Married on Saturday evening, Miss Lou Cyrus of this place, and a Mr. Lambert, of Sidney, W. Va. Also, on Sunday evening Mr. Jerry Smith and Miss Mary Alley, both of this place. And the prospects are good for several more weddings during the holidays.—Centerville Item.

Friday as Mont Newman, a farmer living near Four Poles, below Central City, was walking over the ground under the high Camden Interstate bridge at that point, he stumbled over the body of a dead man, much to his surprise and consternation.

Investigation revealed the fact that the man, who was colored, had fallen off the bridge to the bottom below, and that the water which had been running in the creek had covered the body. The water had receded. In this way, Newman found the body.

Advance sheets from the biennial report of Warden Haddock, of the West Virginia penitentiary, to the board of directors of the prison show that seven hundred and eleven convicts have been received during the biennial period, and 636 have been discharged by virtue of expiration of sentences, paroles, pardons, and deaths. The population of the institution at this time is 1,332. It reached its highest point on the 3rd day of August, 1906, with a population of 1,274, and is always lower about October 1 than at any other time during the year.

Chester, W. Va., Dec. 29.—One of the largest coal companies ever formed in the State has just been granted a charter by the Secretary of State. The company was formed at Ashland, Ky. The new million-dollar concern will be known as the Camden-Mayo Coal Company with chief office to be located in Lloyd county. The incorporators are J. W. M. Stewart, B. E. Whitman, James G. Serey and John M. Hopkins, all of Ashland.

A deal has been consummated by which the Norfolk and Western railway company has taken over the property of the Big Sandy, East Lynn and Guyan Railway. This line was constructed in the summer of 1903, by a syndicate headed by Senator B. J. Prichard, chief owner of the rich coal deposits in the East Lynn territory. The road extends from the junction with the Norfolk and Western, at Wayne, to East Lynn, nine miles south. When the enterprise was first launched, it was planned to operate the mines at East Lynn on a grand scale. A company was formed in which were interested numerous capitalists of East Radford, and Richmond, Va., and Captain Perry, of Alabama. The road was constructed, and a considerable sum expended in developing the mines. When the work of development was about completed the stockholders disagreed among themselves. Then ensued a long period of litigation which greatly retarded the work, and gave the enterprise a set-back from which it never fully recovered. Meantime Senator Prichard sold out his holdings in the company, and the entire management devolved upon Captain Perry.

The deal is considered to be one of vast importance. This is not true primarily because of the amount involved in dollars and cents, but because of the significance attached. It is claimed by persons in good position to know that it is the intention of the Norfolk and Western to extend the line many miles south, ultimately to connect with the C. and O. on the Guyan. This, it is claimed, is a move to head off the Deepwater, and at the same time it will open a territory rich in coal and timber. The east fork of Twelve Pole river has decidedly the richest vein of canal coal in the country. There are various seams of both hard and soft coals encountered in the territory, and the development of this section will open up a mining region second to few in West Virginia. For several months the relations between the Norfolk and Western and the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company have grown very seriously close, and it has been perjoined interests in the fight against the Deepwater in southern West Virginia.

In this connection is also believed that the long cherished purpose of the C. and O. for a direct route to Columbus, over the tracks of the Norfolk and West will be achieved, through an agreement entered into between the two companies.

Miss Rebecca Garrett, daughter of Morgan Garrett, of Wayne, died Monday at the home of her sister, Mrs. John B. Burgess, at Ardell. She will be buried in the family cemetery today.

Gle E. Sansom, son of H. W. Sansom, of this place, was drowned in Beech Fork last Monday evening, while running to a tin raft. He was accompanied by Sam Blankenship, Jr. The stream was at very high tide and they were trying to tie the raft up. Sammie jumped off to make the line fast, leaving Gle on the raft. In checking the fleet the current was so strong the raft sank, carrying Gle to a watery grave. The surrounding water has been drained and dragged for him, but as yet his body has not been recovered. He leaves a wife and one child and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his death.

Little Frank Sansom, son of H. W. Sansom, got kicked by a mule this morning and was terribly cut and bruised about the face and behind the ear. Hope the accident will not prove fatal. Dr. Hanfield was summoned and dressed the wounds. This is a trying time on the hearts of the parents, as the child is suffering from a severe case of diphtheria and cannot be found in Beech Fork. Hope their future days will be brighter than the present ones.—Wayne News.

Weston, W. Va., December 26.—A gas explosion at Heater Station, last night, burned to death the three youngest children of Stanley Singleton, aged 13, 11 and 8 years.

They occupied the room in which the explosion occurred. It was about two hours after the family had retired. It is supposed the gas accumulated from a leaky valve. The father and mother, with two grown children, got out of the house, but the three little ones could not be got out and were seen to perish in the flames by the rest of the family, who were powerless to give them aid, the room being on fire at once, and the walls falling in.

The house, with all its contents, was destroyed, together with the other houses in the village, all owned by R. M. Smith and Co., of Parkersburg. They have a large lumber plant at that place.

The Bluefield Leader is now an afternoon paper.

Franklin, W. Va., December 20.—Alexander Galloway, of this place, died in the Keokuk Hotel here this evening, the result of a shot wound received in a fight with Lucius Adkins at Minkoff. Yesterday Adkins may recover, though he was shot twice by Galloway. The men had been enemies.

Mrs. Mary Trout, wife of John W. Trout, died at her home on Tom's creek Thursday morning from the effects of burns she received the evening before. On Wednesday evening while her husband was absent from the house the clothing of Mrs. Trout became ignited, supposedly from an open grate, and before the flames could be extinguished she was so horribly burned that she died next morning. Mrs. Trout had been demented for over a year.

nor proper to leave the question of polygamy to be dealt with by the several states. Power to deal with it should be conferred on the national government.

"When home ties are loosened; when men and women cease to regard a worthy family life, with all its duties fully performed, and all its responsibilities lived up to, as the life best worth living; then evil days for the commonwealth are at hand. There are regions in our land, and classes of our population, where the birth rate has sunk below the death rate. Surely it should need no demonstration to show that wilful sterility, from the standpoint of the nation, is a sin for which there is no atonement; a sin which is the more dreadful exactly in proportion as the men and women guilty thereof are in other respects, in character, and bodily and mental powers those whom for the sake of the state it would be well to see the fathers and mothers of many healthy children, well brought up in homes made happy by their presence. No man, no woman, can shrink the primary duties of life, whether for love of ease and pleasure, or for any other cause, and retain his or her self-respect."

Rapid changes of temperature are hard on the toughest constitution.

The conductor passing from the heated inside of a trolley car to the icy temperature of the platform—the canvasser spending an hour or so in a heated building and then walking against a biting wind—know the difficulty of avoiding cold.

Scott's Emulsion strengthens the body so that it can better withstand the effects of cold from changes of temperature.

It will help you to avoid taking cold.

FRIDAY, January 4, 1907.

Announcement was made that John D. Rockefeller had made a gift of $3,000,000 to the University of Chicago.

David P. Robb, for forty years Grand Treasurer of the Grand Commandery of the Knights Templars, is dead at Versailles after a long illness.

Former Mayor David R. Tevis shot and slightly wounded Daniel Taylor, a negro train porter, at Richmond. The negro had threatened Tevis on a Louisville and Nashville train several days ago and was arrested at that time.

Nearly three score were killed and almost 100 injured in a wreck on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad three miles from Washington. A loaded and an empty passenger train came together, one telescoping the other. The responsibility has not been determined.

The December balance sheet of the State Auditor and Treasurer, now being made up under direction of Auditor Hager and Treasurer Bexworth, will show a balance on hand in the State depository and to the credit of the Commonwealth at the close of business today of $1,454,916.46.

With prejudice against no man, and with adulation for none, the Enquirer sees a rift in the clouds. There is a big array of ready men, but it will be helpless without Commander in Chief. It is a simple, plain fact, which not even an intelligent opponent of "the old commander" can deny, that William J. Bryan is taller and wider in the public eye than any other man, not considering, of course, in this connection, the present Chief Executive. The position and relation of Mr. Bryan to the country is a very remarkable one.

Nominated for President in 1896 on a platform that protested against a money situation that is approximated even now, Mr. Bryan led brilliantly in a campaign that has had no parallel. He made the record in oratory, and could keep in close touch with more people, at one time, than any man before him or any that will come after. But very few men of either party, well informed as to the "secret service" of that unparalleled fight, will deny that Mr. Bryan was probably enmeshed out of the Presidency at that election. His skillful concentration of frauds in localities, communities and even states were awing. The suspicion that he was despoiled of a victory is at least strong enough to preserve the Democratic sympathy to this hour and to keep alive the resentment that was born when Samuel J. Tilden was thrown out by means of a Congressional device.

GEORGES CREEK.

Sunday School at this place has closed out until April 1907. We had a good School and we hope during the four months of winter quarters that the school will be still in the minds of the people, so when the first Sunday in April rolls around that we can move right on as though winter had never bothered us. Now, scholars, let us every Sunday during our absence from each other at our regular hour read our old quarterlies and think of each other until we meet again the first Sunday in April 1907.

Weak Lungs Bronchitis

For over sixty years doctors have endorsed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs, colds, weak lungs, bronchitis, consumption. You can trust a medicine the best doctors approve. Then trust the next time you have a hard cough.

"I had an awful cough for over a year, and nothing seemed to do me any good. I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and was soon cured. I recommend it to all my friends whenever they have a cough."—Miss M. MAYNARD, Washington, D.C.

Expert Machinist-Plumber.

An imperfect job done in repairing machinery is the most expensive thing imaginable. Absolute accuracy is necessary. Broken parts of an engine must be perfectly repaired, or replaced by accurate new parts. Otherwise, it is just as well to throw the engine into the scrap pile and save cost of repairs. Frank E. Kilbourne, Ashland, Ky., is an engine specialist. He is prepared to duplicate or repair perfectly any part. He is also an expert plumber. Perfect plumbing is the only kind that never causes trouble. Save money and further trouble by employing him.

OBITUARY.

The death angel has again visited our neighborhood and taken from the home of Uncle Andy Moore his loving wife. She passed to the great beyond Christmas morning. She was 53 years old, leaves a husband, one son who is married, two sisters, three brothers and a host of friends to mourn their loss, but we feel sure that their loss is Heaven's gain.

She was sick for some time. All was done that living flesh could do to restore her. Weep not, dear friends, for Aunt Sarah, but prepare to meet her in that celestial abode when no more sad lives are said.

Up to the date of her death, she was a kind and loving mother and wife and mother-in-law. She will be missed and sorely grieved by all who knew her.

She will be missed and sorely grieved by all who knew her.

Funeral services will be held at the home of the bereaved on Monday, Jan. 7, at 2 o'clock p.m.

Interment will be in the cemetery at Louisa.

EVILS OF CONSTIPATION.

are many; in fact, almost every sever illness has its origin in constipation, and some medicines, instead of preventing constipation, add to it.
This is true of most cathartics, which when first used, have a beneficial effect, but the dose has to be continually increased, and before long the remedy ceases to have the desired effect. There is one preparation, however, that can be relied upon to produce the same results without the same dose, even after fifty years' daily use, and this is Brandreth's Pills, which have a record of over 100 years as the standard remedy for constipation and all troubles arising from an impure state of blood.
Brandreth's Pills are the same fine laxative tonic pill your grandparents used and can be found in every drug

Farm For Sale.

We have decided to sell our farm consisting of between 250 and three hundred acres, situated two miles below the mouth of Georges creek, on the west side of Big Sandy river, being a part of what is known as the "Kise Farm." There is a good eight room frame dwelling house, two good wells, a large barn, and a variety of fruit bearing trees, on the farm. There are about 60 acres of bottom land, and about 90 acres hill land, the latter well set in grass. For further information, address Julia Kise Atkinson, Painesville, Ky., or Chas. W. Kise, Wilhamsburg, Ky.

Dissolution Notice.

The firm of Pierce and Derrick, is dissolved by mutual consent. All parties indebted to the firm of Pierce and Derrick will pay such indebtedness to W. D. Pierce.

W. D. Pierce
G. H. Derrick.

and Boys' good shoes.

SHIPMAN & GENTRY, - Louisa, Ky.

PRESENTS.

Bracelets are among the most popular articles in jewelry this year. Neck chains and lockets are also much worn. Brooches, cuff pins, beauty pins and stick pins are always good.
Things never go out of style. Hat pins make useful and appreciated gifts, the Old Kentucky Home design being a very popular one. Cuff buttons for gentlemen, the pins, watch chains and charms, Secret order pins and buttons, and many other articles make acceptable gifts. At Conley's store you will find these things in solid gold and other qualities, guaranteed as represented.

Sterling silver novelties of all kinds, toilet and manicure sets, military, hat and cloth brushes, Louisa souvenir spoons, solid silver tea spoons, and scores of small items.

The genuine Highland China shown in four choice decorations, in single pieces and sets, at prices as low as any city store. Also, vases, single plates, and a select line of cut glasses.
At Conley's store.

Books will answer the purpose many times when nothing else will do. See our line. Some handsome gift edi-

Pictures are permanent presents and find a place in the home that makes them a source of constant pleasure.
At Conley's store there is an excellent assortment.

Fine boxes of writing paper and envelopes make inexpensive, but appreciated gifts.

Figs, Raisins, Prunes, and citron at Sullivan's.

Watches Repaired.

Have your repairing done by an expert. Mr. O. C. Wilson, of Los Angeles, Cal., is in charge of this department and will do any work in that line.

Satisfaction Guaranteed.

If you have any work in this line bring it in and have it done right. A Watch is a delicate piece of mechanism and should be entrusted only to an expert.

Our Big Clubbing Offer.
 By special arrangement with the Southern Agriculturist, the popular semi-monthly farm paper of Nashville Tenn., we are able to give our readers the advantage of a clubbing offer which we believe is the most liberal ever made by any newspaper in the South.
 The Southern Agriculturist, a great semi-monthly farm paper goes twice every month into 50,000 southern homes, and the regular price is 50 cents a year. It is edited by southern men and women to suit southern conditions, and is just what our farmers need. It answers free of charge any question a subscriber may ask, and its advice is given in a plain, practical way which any farmer can understand. All departments of farm life are covered, including delightful home and children pages.
 HERE IS THE LIST OF REGULAR PRICES:
 Big Sandy News.....$1.00
 Southern Agriculturist.....50
 Nashville Weekly American.....50
 Indestructible Hen (poultry).....50
 Southern Fruit Grower.....50
 Total regular price.....$3.00
 We will send you all five of the above papers a whole year for only $1.50.
 These papers are all southern publications and each is a leader in its particular field. Order this club and you will get a big year's reading at nominal cost.

Republicans and Democrats alike praise Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and all throat and lung diseases, as no other remedy can compare with it. It is safe and sure. F. T. Slater, merchant, 171 Main St., Gloucester, Mass., writes "Foley's Honey and Tar cured me of a very bad cough which I had for three months though other remedies failed to benefit me. I can highly recommend it for coughs and colds." For sale by Louisa rug Co.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

A warroom of the store of A. J. Stanner and Co., at Olive Hill, was destroyed by fire late Friday evening.

News has been received that the residence of William A. Young, the attorney at Morehead, Rowan county, was destroyed by fire about 4 o'clock Sunday morning. All the contents were destroyed, the only thing saved being a couch. Mr. Young says the loss on his house was $20,000. He only had $1,500 insurance. It is believed to have been the work of incendiaries.

The defendants in the suit for $50,000 damages, filed by the administration of Fred Ketterer, against the State Board of Control for charitable institutions and Dr. J. S. Redwire, superintendent of the Eastern Kentucky Asylum for the Insane, filed a demurrer to the petition. It was claimed that, as the defendants were officers of the State, nothing in their official capacity, when the petition complained of was taken, they cannot be sued for damages.

There is a rumor that Railroad Tax Collector Peck has applied to the Governor for troops to quiet the resisting tax payers. The Collector showed his customary bravery during the sale day at Olive Hill - he was toasting his shins about the hearthstone of his own home away down in Pendleton county, leaving his deputies to face the wrath of the people. He did the same trick eleven years ago.

Local churches are greatly exercised over the dance given at Alpha Hill, Thursday evening, at which certain members of the church seemed to be the most agile in tripping the light fantastic. It is said that those who trod upon this section of the blue-book discipline will now have to "walk the plank." We have license to do most anything else from selling and drinking liquor down to falling out over elections, but dancing is the limit with us. Shades of hypocrisy - no wonder so many are on the tobacco-gate without a haven of hope. -Olive Hill cor. Ashland Independent.

Mrs. Lucy Booth, formerly Lucy Star, of Little Elk creek, shot and instantly killed Esau Mathews. Mrs. Booth was arrested and is now in the jail awaiting her trial. The shooting occurred just before day. All the family were at breakfast except Mrs. Booth and two or three small children. Mr. Mathews, being at the same place, left the dining room saying, "Watch me scare Lucy." Going to her room he made a noise at the door. She being easily frightened thought it was burglars and seeing a gun nearby, her first thought was to shoot. The lead went in his mouth. Mrs. Booth is held under five thousand dollars bail.

Olive Hill, Ky., Dec. 27.—Determined to prevent the collection of either principal or interest on railroad bonds issued sixty years ago, for the construction of a railroad which was never built, the men of Carter and Elliott counties have resorted to arms and have formed themselves into a sort of Ku Klux Klan, the members of which are pledged to stand together, and if necessary fight for what they believe to be their rights. The invasion of Olive Hill by the men of these two counties is the first armed resistance that has been offered the civil authorities, but it is said that if any further attempts are made to force the money alleged to be due from these two counties bond may be shed.

The Governor may be asked to send troops to enforce the collection of the taxes. A mob of 1,000 men took possession of Olive Hill Monday morning, and by force of the weapons they carried forced the collector of taxes to surrender a stock of merchandise on which he had levied for taxes. The stock was removed from the collector's home and returned to the store from which the officer of the law had taken it. The armed band then paraded through the streets of Olive Hill, firing volley after volley in celebration of their work. They then scattered to their homes. Two men were shot during the celebration.

PRUNE PUDDING DENTS SHIP.

Cook of the Cruiser Boston Drops Mixture and is Placed in Irons.

Hellingsham, Wash.—No sooner had the crippled cruiser Boston reached port than another dire calamity hit her amidships.

For the Monday dinner of the buncy able seamen the cook hilt a special plum duff using prunes instead of plums. He boiled the pudding in a bag for a couple of hours, and started below to serve it to the seamen.

At the companionway the duff slid from the platter, struck the bottom step and bounded to the beams overhead. The impact dented a steel girder, four by eight inches, and left a depression in the iron deck at the takeoff.

On the second rebound the prune-plum duff stove in the starboard end of a petty officer's clothes chest and knocked the buttons off his Sunday go-to-work uniform. From the chest the stamped pudding hopped to the other side of the ship, smashing the two-inch thickness of glass in a deaf light and went overboard.

The captain placed the cook in irons and ordered the ship's diver to recover the pudding for expert analysis. It is thought the flour furnished the Boston by the Mill trust has been adulterated beyond the limit of human endurance.

CAT INHERITS FINE HOUSE.

Property Worth $40,000 Now Belongs to Lons Feline.

Wilkesbarre, Pa.—Blackie, the survivor of the two cats to whom Benjamin Dilley, of this city, bequeathed a property worth $40,000, mourns his mate, Pinkie, who died the other day. unu is inconsolable.

Despite the attentions which Miss Ada Ruch, to whom the executors of the estate have paid $75 a month to take charge of the cats, lavishes upon him, he goes about the rooms of the house where his late master and his companion, Pinkie, died, searching everywhere for her.

Pinkie was 15 years old; Blackie is somewhat younger. Both lived all their lives with Benjamin F. Dilley, of this city, and when he died, 18 months ago, he left to them a building worth $40,000, and delegated Miss Ada Ruch, who, next to himself, loved them best, to take charge of them until their death.

Blackie's life will now be solitary, for the cats were not allowed out of doors. He will remain in the house with Miss Ruch, and everything will be provided for his comfort. He has now all the little delicacies, which he likes best, including fish on Fridays, catnip, milk every day, wheat, occasionally boiled chestnuts and shrimps. At the bottom of every door is a hole for him to go in or out, and he has several downy beds in wicker baskets in which to sleep.

OLD LAND CASE SETTLED.

Title to 160,000 Acres Disputed for Many Years.

Fort Worth, Tex.—The celebrated land case of Joseph Schmidt against various claimants at Vernon, this state, involving 160,000 acres of Panhandle land valued at more than half a million dollars, has been won by the plaintiff.

Twenty years ago, when the Denver road was building from Fort Worth across the plains to Denver, Schmidt was a large owner of land and was proprietor of a big hotel and largely interested in the leading bank at Vernon. He also promoted a street car line there. To avoid a crash that came in 1884, John Byers, to save himself, transferred heavy property holdings to a friend who was afterward forced to sell it to pay debts.

Schmidt bought the land. Despite the fact that repeated attempts have been made to take the land from Schmidt, he succeeded in holding his claim. The higher courts have always given Schmidt title to the property. The late decision determines the contest.

CHIEF RED CLOUD IS ALIVE.

Officials Learn Old Redskin is Still Hail and Hearty.

Washington.—Although the death of Red Cloud has been reported at various times during the last few years, that famous old Sioux warrior and scalp taker, the mention of whose name back in the seventies would strike terror to the hearts of the settlers along the Big and Little Platte, is living, hale and hearty, at Pine Ridge agency, apparently many leagues this side of the happy hunting grounds.

This interesting piece of information has come to Capt. G. A. Iager, of the interior department from his brother, L. J. F. Iager, of Chadron, Neb. The latter is known throughout the west as "Lully the Bear," whose fame as a plainsman, scout, cow-puncher, gun fighter, deputy sheriff, and mortal foe of the Texas cattle "rustler," at one time extended west of the Mississippi river from the Canadian borderland to the waters of the Rio Grande. A recent visit was made by Iled Cloud to Chadron, where the old warrior, now broken by age, journeyed from the agency to bury his favorite squaw, Little Fawn.

Rabbits Steal Safety.

Gibbstown, N. J.—It gunners were allowed to go on the grounds of the powder company it would not take them long to fill their game bags. On the 1,600 acres owned by the company are hundreds of rabbits and dozens of coveys of quail, all protected even in the closed season. The company will not allow gunners, nor anyone else to trespass. The game seems to know this, and seeks the protection. Many a dog has run a rabbit "into the fold," where the gunner is stopped by a guard, and that's the end of the trail.

Wife Cannot Be a Bartender.

Washington.—Woman may not serve as bartenders in the District of Columbia. The district court of appeals has denied the petition of August Schwartz for a writ of error to issue to the police court to review the judgment of the latter tribunal sustaining the act of Congress of 1893, forbidding the employment of women as bartenders. Mr. Schwartz was convicted in the police court November 1 for permitting his wife to sell intoxicants over his bar, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100.

Alfonso Smokes Poorer Cigars.

Madrid.—Most wealthy Spaniards prefer the perfumed tobacco found in the gilt and conk-tipped cigarettes turned out by English firms, but King Alfonso smokes long Spanish cigars of black tobacco, wrapped in brown paper, according to native custom. The paper is not gummed, but the tobacco is held in at the end by a twist of the wrapper. For smoking they must be rolled, which requires a certain dexterity.

BLAINE NORMAL SCHOOL.

OF BLAINE, KENTUCKY.

Will begin on Monday, Jan. 14, 1907, with Charles M. Elam B. S., Principal.

The special object of this school is the preparation of young men and women for teaching, and to enable them to successfully stand any examination. We solicit students who will act as ladies and gentlemen, and who will appreciate and improve their advantages. Students will be courteously treated, and it will be our pleasure to assist and encourage them in every possible way. Besides the Teachers' Course there will be Common School Courses in charge of an able teacher. Board can be obtained in good families at far more reasonable rates than in most larger towns.

The term will continue four months, and rates of tuition per term are as follows: Primary Course, $5; Elementary Course, $7; High School Course, $9; Teachers' Course, $8.
